INTRODUCTION

The Clothes Show Nail Awards are a showcase of the UK's up and coming beauty talent. Featuring two different categories – Nail Technician of the Year and Young Nail Technician of the Year – the awards are dedicated to nurturing, supporting and developing rising talents within the beauty industry.

Providing an unprecedented platform into the beauty industry, the aim of the Clothes Show Nail Awards – supported by Habia and Health & Beauty Salon Magazine – is to target professional and emerging nail technicians, to recognise up-and-coming talent within the ever developing industry.

Each category will be judged by a prestigious panel of experts and announced at an impressive awards ceremony in Clothes Show London's spectacular Fashion Theatre at London's ExCeL on Sunday 31 May 2009.

Recognised across the beauty industry's experts and magazines, The Clothes Show Nail Awards are supported overall by Habia – setting government approved standards in hair, nails and spa therapy and the Nail technician of the Year is sponsored by beauty therapist association BABTAC and supported by Health & Beauty Salon.
